Club Notes

The meeting for October 2nd will feature our APS circuit books. The APS circuit books include U.S. 19th century, U.S. back of the book, Ireland, Classic Worldwide, Cuba, Canada, Hungary, and Germany Members are welcome to bring items to sell or trade during this program.

The program for October 16th is a Philatelic Quiz. Phil Alexander will present some questions to test our philatelic knowledge. Members who wish to sell items at the auction on November 20th must turn them over to our auctioneer Al Chadourne at this meeting or sooner.

On November 6th, the program will be the APS circuit books. Members are welcome to bring items to sell or trade during this program. The lots for the auction at the next meeting will be available for viewing at this meeting.

Our quarterly philatelic auction will be held on November 20th. This auction will feature lots submitted by members. These auctions have been very successful. The lots for the auction must be submitted to the auctioneer by the meeting of October 16th.

The meeting for December 4th will feature our APS circuit books. Members are welcome to bring items to sell or trade during this program.

We will hold our annual Holiday Party on December 18th. Please bring some holiday goodies to share with our members. Drinks will be provided. You are encouraged to bring your spouse, significant other, or family members to the party. This is a good time to chat with other members and meet their family or friends.

Members are reminded that the buying, selling, and the trading of stamps are permitted before and after the business meeting and the program. Please refrain from these activities during the business meeting and the program unless they are specifically allowed by the program scheduled.

We are always looking for ideas for programs. If you have an idea for a program or are willing to present a program, please let one of the officers know.

Information about the Jockey Hollow Stamp Club and the programs can be found on its website at <http://jockeyhollowstampclub.com>.
